HISTORY

Bokor Mountain is about 11 kilometres from Kampot town and it was discovered by a French named Rolous in 1917. In 1921, it was developed into a resort, a famous summer escape for French elites and royal families. During Sangkum-reas-niyum era, many buildings were constructed and it was referred as "Bokor City".

Until the present, Bokor Mountain has about a century of rich history with multiple French Colonial buildings such as Le Bokor Palace, the Old Catholic Church, Domnak Sla Khmao, Domnak Preah Bath Monivong and Wat Sampov Pram, etc.

Bokor Mountain is regarded as one of the most beautiful and special tourist destination in the south of Cambodia.

OLD CATHOLIC CHURCH

The old Catholic Church was built by the French in the early 1920s. The church's architecture is well-kept until today for guests to visit. This location is a great spot to view the sunset on Bokor Mountain and is very popular for pre-wedding photoshoots.

WAT SAMPOV PRAM/ 5 BOATS PAGODA

The name Wat Sampov Pram came from the resemblance of oddly sculpted rocks to five traditional ships lined up next to each other. The temple was built by the mother of King Sisowath Monivong. Behind the temple, there is a breathtaking views of deep blue sea and emerald green jungle that will amaze you. Wat Sampov Pram is the highest located Buddhist temple in Cambodia, at 1,075 meters above sea level.
